Piloting in Action

What's Next

Welcome to the third edition of our newsletter for the Harmony Path project! We're excited to bring you the latest updates and milestones in our mission to empower young people to become active contributors to violence prevention and peacebuilding within their communities.

This project is funded by European Union, under Erasmus+ programme (project no. 2023-3-DE04-KA210-YOU-000176414).

Highlights: Final Partner Meeting in August

- In August, our consortium gathered for the final transnational partner meeting. This event marked a milestone in our journey, bringing together partners to reflect on achievements, exchange feedback, and finalize the project's outputs.
- The meeting allowed us to:
- Review the progress of the piloting phase.
- Fine-tune the Adventures Tool and Coaching Cards.
- Discuss sustainability strategies to ensure Harmony Path continues to have impact beyond the project's lifetime.
- The collaborative spirit and shared commitment across all partners reaffirmed the strength of our partnership and our common goal: empowering youth to build peace and prevent violence in their communities.

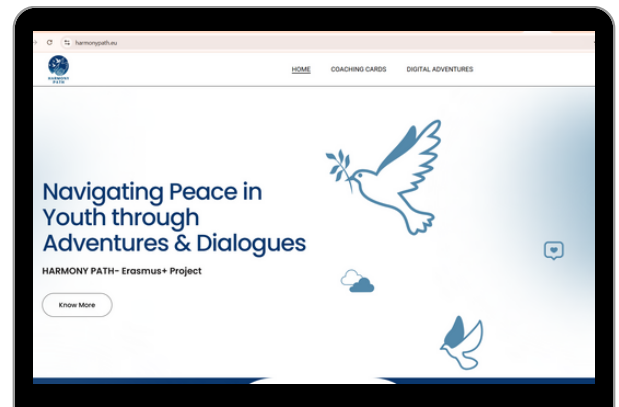

“We have created tools—Adventures Scenarios and Coaching Cards—to ensure that peace begins with thinking, sharing, and acting together.”

Piloting in Action

Currently, partners are running piloting sessions with youth groups, putting the Adventures Tool and Coaching Cards into practice. These sessions provide invaluable insights into how young people engage with the resources, and how facilitators can best apply them in diverse contexts.

Through interactive challenges, role-playing scenarios, and guided reflections, participants are experiencing first-hand how creative tools can strengthen skills such as empathy, dialogue, and conflict resolution. Feedback from these sessions will shape the final refinements of our resources and ensure their practical value for educators and youth workers.

“We are excited to announce that in October we will host two online training sessions! These sessions will give youth workers and educators the chance to explore our Adventures Scenarios and Coaching Cards in action, and learn how to apply them in their own contexts. Join us and be part of this journey toward peacebuilding!”

What's Next?

As piloting continues, we are preparing to share impact stories and final versions of the project outputs. These resources will soon be made widely available for educators, trainers, and organizations working with youth across Europe.

Stay tuned for our next issue, where we will present the final toolkit, showcase piloting results, and highlight the voices of young people who have been part of this journey.
